GOV. GEARY'S TESTIMONY.

[From the St. Louis Democrat, March 17] At length we have a story of the wrongs Attength we have a story of the wrongs inflicted by the border ruffians in Kansas, which we think may be credited. Let us hear no more of "free-state perversions" and "abolition lies." The correspondence that has appeared in the columns of the Democrat from time to time has only been untrue in its failure to fully represent the attentives of the pressures untare who antrue in its failure to fully represent the atrocities of the pro-slavery outlaws who have gained foothold in Kansas.

Gov. John W. Geary, at Lecompton, on the 4th inst, forwarded his resignation of the Governorship of Kansas to the department at Washirgton. Having notified Mr. Woodson, Secretary of the Territory, of this fact, and having surrendered to that officier the official control, he in a few days after quit the country and started for the after quit the country and started for the East. He arrived in this city on Sunday evening, accompanied by his private Scerc-tary, Dr. Gilton. Yesterday afternoon he called at this office, and in the course of a called at this office, and in the course of a long conversation gave us a complete histo-ry of his administration in Kansus, and more than confirmed all the reports which reached the public through the Democrat of the outrages of the pro-slavery bandits and rebels in that unhappy Territory.

The Governor states the cause of his resignation to be the failure of ex-President Pierce to fulfill the pledges made at the time of his acceptance of the appointment. The promises of Mr. Pierce, he says, were to promises of Air. Flerce, he says, were to support him (Geary) with the United States army, the militia, and the treasury, if nec-essary; but instead of receiving the aid, either in men or money, from the President, he has paid $12,000 out of his own pocket, for the support of his own administration; and with regard to military support, he has even been relused a detachment of two companies of cavalry, for which he applied under the most urgent enginesis, and received the haughty answer from the officer n command, that the army of the United m commant, that the army of the United States was not employed to protect him.—
In adition, the Judiciary of the Territory, as well as the military of the government, refused its support. Judge Lecempte thwarted him on all occasions, and having the means to execute his judicial decrees, was enabled to overrule him in every important

Again, throughout his whole official career, he has been an object of hatred to an organized and sworn band of conspirators in the Territory. He states that fifty men were under oath from the day he went into the country until he left it, to assassing im, provided his official career should deviete from that course which they had marked out for him. His life thus in constant jcopardy; the judiciary bitterly opposed to him; the military inactive and stubborn, and the government without money or means of any kind, he was necessarily com-pelled to decline. The Governor says he regrets the step he was obliged to take most sincerely, and feels confident that had he received the assistance promised him .he could have administered the affairs of the Territory in a manner acceptable to the honest settlers of both sides.

In relation to the robberies, arsons and murders at the hands of rhe pro-slavery ruftians, which have taken place in Kansas, the the Governor says the half has not yet been Haves was one of the most cold blooded and atrovious affairs ever witnessed. The Govcritics reached the spot a few moments after the affair occurred. As the poor fellow was lying upon the carth in his agonies, the blood streaming from his wounds, and the cold sweat of death upon his hrow, he seized the Governor's hand, and declared, that as the Governor's man, and declared, that he looked for mercy hereafter, he was innocent of all cause of offence—that it was o he looked for mercy hereafter, he was innocent of all cause of offence—that it was a most foul and unprovoked murder. He asked his assassin why he sought his life, or desired to take his property—that upon his efforts depended the subsistence of an aged father and mother, a deaf and dumb brother and sister—that he himself was a cripple, and therefore harmeless. To this appeal he was told that he was a "d—d abolitionist, and that they intended to destroy the whole of them." Upon which Hayes, one of the gang, seized him by the collar, and placing the pistol against his stomach, shot him.

The Governor pledged him, while he held his cold hand in his own, that he would use all his power to bring his murderers to justice. "I spent," said the Governor, "five hundred dollars to have his assassin arrested; and I would have spent five thousand dollars to have done so, if it had been necessary." It is well known that the Governor had Hayes arrested, but scarcely was he put in prison when Lecompte issued a writ of hab cus cornus, had him released and set put in prison when Lecompte issued a writ of habeus corpus, had him released and set of habens corpus, had him released and set at liberty upon straw bail. Hayes is now in Missouri, and is playing the gentleman. The Governor further states that after the release of Hayes, Surveyor General Calhoun took occasion, in a public speech upon the matter, to declare that the discharge of Hayes was perfectly local and that it was matter, to deciare that the discharge of Hayes was perfectly legal, and that it was mistake to suppose that the territorial laws were enacted for the henefit of any other persons than the pro-slavery men.

Speaking of the insult offered him, which led to the death of Sherrard, the Covernor gave a detailed account of the transaction, and the manner. and the manner in which his assassination had been previously planned. His own had been previously planned. His own firmness, however, prevented its execution. Sherrard, the Governor states, with three others, waylaid him in the hall of the Logislature. He discovered them, and knew their purpose, and when Sherrard spoke to him, he made no reply, but passed on, when Sherrard spat upon his hack several times. As soon as these facts became known a public meeting was held, composed principally As soon as these facts became known a public meeting was held, composed principally of pro-slavery men, for the purpose of denouncing the act. It was at this meeting that Sherrard was shot. When the resolutions were read, Sherrard said that any person who endorsed them "was a liar, a coward, and scoundrel." Mr. Sheppard then arose and stated that he endorsed them and ard, and scoundrel." Mr. Sheppard then arose and stated that he endorsed them and was neither a li r, scoundrel nor coward.—Sherrard then drew his revelver and commenced shooting at Sheppard, who received three balls in bis body. Mr. S. then snapped a pistol at Sherrard, but it failing fire, he rushed upon him and struck him with his weapon. They were separated, and Sherrard then drew another fistol and ad-Sherrard then drew another pistol and ad-Sherrard then drew another pfstol and advanced upon Jones, whom he had previously insulted because he was a member of the Governor's household. Jones, perceiving his danger drew a pistol in self defence; a number of shots were then fired at the same time, and Sherrard fell. The Governor says that the account of the affair published in the Republican as furnished by some Mr. Jones, is a tissue of falsehoods from beginning to end.

Jones, is a tissue of falsehoods from beginning to end.

Among other things, the Governor complains most bitterly of the annoyances which he suffered in the obstruction and mutilation of his correspondence. The mail bags he says were constantly opened and all communications to and from him systematically overhauled and, if objectionable, abstracted. Mr. McClain, chief clerk in the Surveyor General's office, hoasted of the fact, and stated that he himself had destroyed and suppressed two bushels of destroyed and suppressed two bushels of mail matter. The above is merely an abstract of the season present to our readers.

The above is merely an abstract of the Governor's statements. There are a multitude of interesting details which we are compelled to omit. His private secretary Mr. Gihou, has promised us a full and complete recital of the entire history of the administration, which we shall in due season present to our readers.

In view of these things, and under the operation of the act of ruffian Legislature which provides for the election of delegates to the Constitutional Convention, admirated as a starill time. gates to the consumuonal Convention, administered as it will be by the dominant faction who hold all the offices, he thinks it inevitable that a slavery constitution will be established in Kansas.

The Governor is, probably, correct; but nevertheless it is one thing to frame a pro-slavery instrument and and another a pro-slavery instrument and and another to establish the institution de fucto in the Territory. The friends of free labor in the North must redouble their efforts.

POINTS OF A GOOD HORSE. The Spirit

FORTS OF a GOOD HORSE.—Inc operation of the Times gives the following direction for examining the condition of a horse:

In purchasing a good horse, sight, wind, feet and limbs must be the uppermost objects of inquiry; for nine horses out of ten are defective in one of those particulars.—First them examine his even and de this. First, then examine his eyes, and do this before he comes out of the stable; see that they are perfectly clear and transparent, and that the pupils or apples of the eye are exactly alike in size and color. Next examine actly anke in size and color. Next extransite his pipes; if good and sound, on being nipped in the gullet he will utter a sound ms papers, and the gullet he will utter a soon like that from a belows, but if his lungs are like that from a below, but if his lungs are touched and he is broken-winded, he will give vent to a dry, husky, short cough, look give vent to a dry, husky, short cough, 100k to his limbs also, and in passing your hands down his legs, if you find any unnatural protuherance, or puffiness, or if, feeling first one leg and then the other, you discover any difference between them, discass more or less is present; he may not be have but be is not elementary in the legs. If lame, but he is not clean upon his legs. It he is broad and full between the eyes, he may be depended on as a horse of good sense, and capable of being trained to al most anything. If you want a gentle horse, get one with more or less white upon him many suppose that the particolored him many suppose that the particolored horses belonging to circuses, shows, &c., are selected for their odity, but it is on account of their docility and gentleness; in fact, the more kindly you treat horses, the better you will be treated by them in return.

Boswell once asked Johnson if there wa no possible circumstance under which suicidi would be justifiable. "No," was the reply. "Well," said Boswell, "suppose a man had been guilty of a fraud that he was certain would be found out?" "Why then," said Johnson, "in that ease let him go to some country where he is not known, and not to PARAGRAPH FOR YOUNG LADIES.—It is Paragraph for Young Ladies.—It is not your neat dress, your neat shawl, or your pretty lingers that attract the attention of men of sense. They look beyond these.—It is the true loveliness of your nature that wins and continues to retain the affections of the heart. Young ladies sadly miss it who labor to improve their outward looks, while they bestow not a thought on the mind. Fools may be won by gew gaws and fashionable showy dresses: but the wise and substantial are never caught by such traps. Let modesty be your dress. Use pleasant and agreeable language, and though you may not be courted by the fop and the sop, the good and truly great will and the sop, the good and truly great will love to linger in your steps.

Snow Bread,-We find the annexed paragraph in one of our exchanges. curious if true :

curious if true;

All persons, where snow abounds, are not perhaps aware of the value of the fleecy flakes in making light delicious and wholesome bread. There is no 'rising' in the world so perfectly good as fresh, sweet snow; it raises bread or cakes as beautifully as the last years or the meet soil and as the best yeast, or the purest acid and alkalies, while it leaves no taint or fermentation like the former, nor injurious neutral salt like the former. Indeed, it rises by supplying atmosphere wherewith to pull up the dough, while the other methods only supply carbonic acid gas.', Eternity! Eternity! How long art thou, Eternity! As in a ball's concentric round Nor starting point nor end is found; So thou, Eternity, so vast, No entrance and no exit hast: Mark well, O man, Eternity!

Eternity! Eternity! How long art thou, Eternity? A ring whose orbit still extends, And, no'er beginning, never ends; "ALWAYS" thy centre, Ring immense, And "NEVER" thy circumference: Mark well, O man, Eternity!

Eternity! Eternity! How long art thou, Elernity? Came there a bird each thousandth year, One sand-grain from the hills to bear, When all had vonished, grain by grain, Eteralty would still remain: Mark well, 0 man, Eternity!

Eternity! Eternity! How long art thou, Eternity? As long as God shall God remain, So long shall last hell's terturing pain, So long the joys of heaven shall be O long delight! long misery! Mark well, 0 man, Eternity Eternity! Eternity! How long art thou, Elemity? O man! let oft thy musings dwell Upon the dreadful wees of hell; Oft on the saints' all-glorious lot, For both shall last when time is NOT: Mark well, 0 man, Eternity!

Eternity! Eternity! How long art thou, Eternity? The thought of thee in pain, how dread! In joy how bright thy prospects spread! For here God's goodness glads our eyes, And there his justice terrifies: Mark well, 0 man, Eternity!

DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

Brooklyn, Conn., June 15, 1851.

Foliand Davis:—Athough a stranger to you, for the purpose of saying a few words in favor of your invaluable medicine. I have used your Pain Killer for a number of years, and for howel complaint and burns, and in fact for pains of all kinds, I think it pre-eminent.

Before I became acquainted with your medicine, I had a violem attack of dyscutery, which reduced me very low, in fact my friends thought I could not survive, but by the treatment of a Botanic Physician, the best remedy I then knew, I recovered. Since then, I have had several attacks, one very violent, shout four years ago. I was attacked at 3 three o'clock in the morning, and at sunrise, I was not able to get off my bed, I sent and got a twenty-five cent battle of your Pain Killer, which I commenced taking, according to directions, and at six o'clock in the evening my bowels were regular, and, I was up and moving about, atthough somewhat weak. I would recommend to all similarily afficied, to avail themselves of your involuble medicine.

I am sir, yours respectfully,

**ELMER MLLEAMS**

The gennaine Perry Davis' Pain Killer is now put up in pannel bottles, with the woods Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer blown in the glass; and with two steel engraved labels on each bottle—one an excellent likeness of Perry Davis, the original inventor of the medicine, the other a steel engraved note of hand—none others can be relied upon as genuine. Prices of bottles 121-2 cents, 26 cents, 50 cents, and $1 respectively.

GOLD NOT IN THE MINES.—These University the last to acquire riches. It is not the patient drudge that acquires a fortune, but the bold and courageous individual who embraces every chance for healthy and honest speculation.—Men do not get rich very often by saving five eent pleces, but they do frequently gain wealth (or the means of speedily acquiring it) by hazarding a little in the hope of a great deal. It, lustead of looking up their little all in building associations a while ago, a great many ambitious workers had invested a small portion of their savings in a well-regulated lottery, how much better off would they now be? We perfectly that a gigantic lottery on the Havana plan, will be drawn in Battimore on the 38th of next April. The State of Maryland sanctions and superintends this lottery which is managed by R. France & Co., of Baltimore, Md. The drawing will take place under the seperintendence of the State lottery commissioner, which guarantees the integrity of all concerned. The scheme is undoubtedly the GREATIST and most MAGNIFICENT ever gotten up in the United States, on the Havana plan of single numbers. There is the prize of $100,000, which it may be your good luck, dear reader, to secure at a cost of $20 for a whole ticket, halves, quarters, and eighths in proportion. For 570 prizes, ranging from $100,000, $57,000, $3,000, $2,000, there being 100 prizes of $1,000 cach, and so on until they reach the amount of $100, only 30,000 tickets have been issued. As we have before said, this being under Nate patronage, it is perfectly honerable and legal, and we do not see why it is not as moral as a church fair, or an ordinary gift enterprise. Orders for tickets must be addressed to T. H. Hubbard & Co., No. 89 Fayette street, or Box No. 40, Baltimore, Maryland.

A FTER in extensive practice of upwards A of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.—
Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Liventious,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters fonching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its inventors have advantages for securing patents, or assertaining the patentability of inventions, masurpased by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testinonials below give proof that nowe is MORE SUCCESS U.A THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at an other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The numerus practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accommate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These esides his extensive library of legal and mephalandle works, and full accounts of patent granted in the United States and Europe render him able, beyond question, to other superor facilities flor obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a parent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

THE GREATEST WONDER OF THE AGE.

A REMEDY which CURES IN FIVE MINUTES.—M. LEROUX'S French Cholera Cognac Bittors. This truly wonderful rejentific compound is recommended by the most entinent and learned physicians of all Europe and America. and enloys the best rencholera Copnae Interest. This test, waters a scientific compound is recommended by the most eminent and learned physicians of all Europe and America, and enjoys the best reputation of anything similar ever offered. It is without doubt, the best most efficient and generally acknowledged remedy against cholera, dysentery, distributed. The numerous patients who have tried it according to directions have invariably found relief in a very short time, and the best proof of it is, that since this standard remedy was introduced in the numies of the Allies in the Crimea, the mortality of the soldiers from cholera and similar diseases was diminished by over 75 per cent.; in consideration of which, the inventor was presented by the French and English governments with a gold medal, bearing the inscription, "Hail! M. Leroux, the great chemist and inventor, by whose knowledge our armies are preserved from cholera."

This invaluable preparation is also a remedy for hilliousness, indigestion, weakness, and general derangement of the stomach. Upon being taken, it creates appetite, and prevents the heaviness attendant upon cating by persons who are dyspeptic.

In this city, also this remedy has been tried with the most undoubted success, and the undersigned can produce the best testimonials of our most celebrated physicians, as to its immediate and complete success, which he will be happy at any time to show to any that may wish to see them.

S PRATT'S LIGHTNING RODS-With PRATT'S LIGHT'NING RODS—With by brunched and other points made of pure copper and gilded with fine gold, all of which are warranted to preserve the extremity sharp and bright. Eight times as good a conductor as a spurious imitation made of east iron, and sold last year by some dealers in lightning rods.

sold last year by some wants and valuable imposes and in applying insulators by which the glass is kept dry, causing no leaks in roofs of buildings, and effectually preventing the electrical luid from being conducted by iron screws and drives into the seam.

The following recommendations have been furnished gratuitussly:

Louisville, Jan. 27, 1861.

The Lightning Conductors on the plan of J. Spratt, of Chachnati, appear to be very well devised, and in point of mechanical construction, are the best I have ever seen.

It is to be hoped that the use of these rods may become general as an important auxiliary defence against a danger which must be regarded as of no ordinary magnitude, to which all buildings are liable. B. SILLIMAN, Jr. Prof. of Chem. in the Univ. of Louisville

This will certify that I have examined the Lightning Rods, Metallic Points, and Insulating Attachments, manufactured by Mr. Spratt, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and regard them as constructed in conformity to the general laws of the electric fault; and the dilded Copper, Branched Points, as prumising, from the results of several tests to which they were submitted it resist for vears the action of those mitted, to resist for years the action of those atmospheric causes most likely to corrode them.

The Greatest Discovery of the Age.

Milford, Worcester Co., Mass., Nov. 13th, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir—I take pleasure in hearing voluntary testimony to the magic effects of your wonderful Hair Restor ative. As far back as 1856 my hair commenced falling off until the top of my scalp became bald and smooth as glass, and it has continued to fall off for a great many years, notwith standing I have used many veels notwing the actions for its restoration. Seeing your advertisement I was induced to give your article atrial, and to my atter astonishment I found after a few applications that my hair became firmly set and assured by very glossy and beautiful appearance; and at the time I had used a quart bottle, my haid head was covered over with a young and vigorous growth or lair, which is now from one to two inches in length, and growing very fast.

The Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PROPESSOR WOOD offers for sale perfect HAIR REESTORATIVE. It in a short time restore the Hair, which has become gray prematurely, to its original colombring to out where it is gone, and arresti when it is falling off—cleans the head of dandruff and itchings-remove all cutaneous eruptions, and render the scalp perfectly healthy, by restoring the secretive organs to their original vigor and strength, and thus supply nutriment and coloring matter to the roots. It does not bye the hair, but is, in short a perfect Hair Invigorator and Tonic.

To the young, who so much admire the beau tiful locks and ringlet, he feels that he will be pardoned if he offers the advice suggested by hong study and extensive observation. It is to discard all cologue and stimutating olif for the hair, and keep always upon the tolict a bottle of the Restorative for occasional use and we can safely predict, that henceforth silver looks will be upon bald heads. Let the dark eye be ever so piercing,—and the teeth be those of pearl—still, if the natural fluids be withheld from the hair, and in consequence becames first dead and harsh, then gray, or falls off nature will be robbed of more than half its clearus; as it is a sovereign remedy for those who are gray as well as those who are gray as well as those who are fall, all must see the propriety of making only such application to the hair and scalp as is calmated to preserve but in a healthy state.

From the editor of the Real Estate Advertiser No. 2 Scholo Street.

Boston, March 20, 1855.

Prof. Wood—Dear Sir—Having become prematurely quite gray, I was induced some 6 weeks since, to make a trial of your Hair Restorative. I have great hopes that in a short time my hair has not fully attained its original color, yet the change is gradually going on, and I have great hopes that in a short time my hair was not fully attained its original color, yet the change is gradually going on, and I have great hopes that in a short time my hair was not fully attained its o length, and growing very fast.

Yours, truly,
HENRY GOODRICH.

Yours, troly,

Carlyle, Ill., June 27, 1856.

I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and as I thought permanently gray, but by the use of his Restorative, it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.
